Unit 3.6 Travel Guide
Why do many people celebrate and give thanks at Harvest time?

Traditional Harvest festival hymns include:
'We plough the fields and scatter'
'Come ye thankful people'
and 'For the fruits of his creation'

Exodus 23 v16
"Celebrate the Harvest Festival when you begin to harvest your crops. Celebrate the Festival of Shelters in the autumn, when you gather the fruit from your vineyards and orchards."

Jewish Sukkot lasts for 7 days

Sukkah

Lulav and etrog

The Bible tells the people of God to make offerings of their first and finest fruits.

Olivagando is the celebration of the olive harvest in Italy.

Harvest festival in German speaking countires is called Erntedankfest.

Pongal in Southern India lasts for 4 days

Rangoli patterns

Questful RE

© Blackburn Diocesan Board of Education 2026